Why One More Report On Foreclosures?

For over three years, the Nevada Association of REALTORS® has studied the foreclosure crisis in Nevada. With our groundbreaking Face of Foreclosure Study (www.FaceOfForeclosure.com) we have sought to understand more than just the same statistics that are repeated over and over again in the news. As REALTORS® we know the importance of data to the housing market. But as neighbors, we care about the human impact. So we have studied both.

This handbook represents only a snapshot of the full picture but is intended to serve as a resource for decision-makers and opinion leaders in the state as they lead us forward. It contains a wealth of data on voters, foreclosures, and mortgages as well as polling and other tools that will help you as you make decisions and study the issue. We hope you will find it to be a helpful resource.

STATEWIDE FORECLOSURE SURVEYS

2011-2012

SURVEY

Survey Among All Residents, 2012 (pg. 300-309)

Survey of 500 individuals currently undergoing, recently experiencing, or narrowly avoiding home foreclosure in Nevada since May of 2010. Interviews were conducted on the evenings of April 22–24, 2012 with respondents on both landline and mobile phones.

Survey Among Foreclosed Individuals, 2012 (pg. 309-316)

A Random Digit Dial (RDD) survey conducted among residents 18 years and older on both landlines and mobile phones on the evenings of March 29 – April 2. The results of this survey are roughly representative of adult Nevada residents.

Personal Experience Survey, 2011 (pg. 316-325)

500 live telephone interviews were conducted with individuals currently undergoing, recently experiencing, or narrowly avoiding home foreclosure. Interviews were conducted on the evenings of August 16-19, 2010, with respondents receiving at least one foreclosure notice (NOD, NTS, REO) in the preceding 12 months.

Survey In Affected Neighborhoods, 2011 (pg. 325-331)

500 live telephone interviews were conducted with individuals residing in neighborhoods with high rates of home foreclosures, but not having received any foreclosure notices on their own home. Interviews were conducted on the evenings of August 16-19, 2010.

 On all surveys, weighting was applied to ensure representation with respect to age, gender, and geography. Margin of error is +/-4.9%.*
